College of Humanities and Social Sciences (CHSS) Principal, Prof. Enos Njeru has revisited a memorandum of understanding signed with the University of Rwanda.

In a meeting with officials from the University of Rwanda, Prof. Njeru, said that the University of Nairobi is committed to the collaboration between the two institutions which has seen three members of staff from the University of Rwanda join the University of Nairobi for PhDs.

In his remarks, Dr. Alphonse Muleefu, also from the University of Rwanda stated that the academic progress made by the PhD students was impressive. Dr. Peter Mugume who accompanied Dr. Muleefu said it was more important to partner with regional universities than sending students to European universities.

Also in attendance during the meeting held at the CHSS boardroom was Faculty of Arts Associate Dean, Prof. Ephraim Wahome.
